Renting out your home?

Hosting temporary guests is a trend that has grown tremendously in recent years. Before you put out the welcome mat and rent out your home (or space in it), it's a good idea to review your insurance coverage.

Introducing Home Sharing Coverage

Erie Insurance now offers Home Sharing Coverage, available through ErieSecure Home[®], ErieSecure Condo[®] and ErieSecure Tenant[®] policies.

This affordable add-on can provide you with valuable coverage for property damage and/or theft and liability claims.

If you're part of the home sharing community (or considering joining in), let's make sure you and your property are protected.

Call your ERIE agent today.

Home Sharing coverage is included in the Incidental Business endorsement, which is applicable when insuring a home as a primary location. Home Sharing includes bed and breakfast hosting and the occasional rental of part, or in whole, of your residence premises for residential purposes only, not to exceed 180 consecutive days. See the endorsement for specific coverage details.

Home Sharing Coverage is available only in Indiana, Pennsylvania and Tennessee. Go to erieinsurance.com for complete company licensure information and talk to your ERIE agent for state-specific policy information.
