Protecting Your People

At Erie Insurance, we know that protecting your business means protecting the people who help make it what it is. The right workers' compensation plan is more than a policy—it's a robust program that focuses on safety and prevention, while also planning ahead to take care of your workers if an injury happens.

We're in This Together

Safety and Injury Prevention

The only thing better than a fast, reliable claims process is avoiding losses altogether. With ERIE®, you'll get top-notch coverage and claims service, plus risk control and safety resources.

Our risk control team is here for you with personal guidance and professional expertise, plus a wide range of resources for you and your team. Ask an ERIE agent about:

- Fleet safety programs
- Hearing conservation programs
- Occupational health surveys
- Industrial safety programs
- Safety training

Doing Right by You

(means doing right by them)

If an injury does happen, we'll be there to help to get your team member and your business back on track, and we'll do it the right way. From helping to get medical providers in place to assisting with creating a program for transitional duties when an injured worker isn't quite ready for business as usual, a powerful team is there for you and your employees alike.

We're Rooting for You

An ERIE agent is a small business owner just like you. Reach out today to turn your workers' compensation questions into answers. Whether you're running an established business, just starting out or changing direction, we'll be there cheering you on and making sure you have the protection you need for your business.
